

JULIE BROWN

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT AND NETWORKING EXPERT

HI, I'M JULIE.

I am a networking coach and business development strategist and I have helped countless people transform their careers through networking.

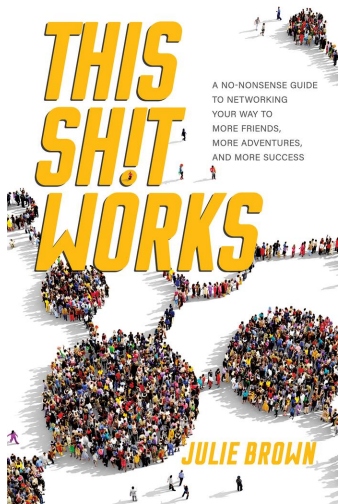

I believe that the people you meet can change your life like nothing else and NETWORKING is how you meet those people. This is why I created my One Minute Pro Tip video series, and wrote my book, This Shit Works: A No-Nonsense Guide to Networking Your Way to More Friends, More Adventures - to make networking easy, accessible (and maybe even fun!)

When I speak at events, my goal is to build a whole new idea in your head about networking and the power of relationship building in business. And my promise is that you will walk away believing that you can unapologetically be who you are and still be wildly successful. I can show you how.

LET'S TALK ABOUT...

- » Networking Your Way to Increased Influence and Success (especially for Women)
- » EQ, IQ & Personality: The Triple Threat For Success
- » This Shit Works: Networking Your Way to More Friends, More Adventures, and More Success
- » Networking during times of social distance

"JULIE IS ONE OF THOSE PEOPLE WHO INSPIRES YOU TO BE THE BEST VERSIONS OF YOURSELF. LISTENING TO HER SPEAK IS NOT ONLY INFORMATIVE, BUT IT'S MOTIVATING AND TYPICALLY HILARIOUS."

THIS SHIT WORKS!

This book is the culmination of my 20 years of networking and business development experience. It is filled with honest stories, more than the occasional swear word, but also proven strategies and targeted to do lists, giving you the road map to creating your power network by making the most extraordinary connections.
